

Trillion Dollar Footprint

Directions

Today you're all producers for "Trillion Dollar Footprint," a popular TV show that tours the country looking for teens to compete in a nationwide talent show. You're looking for a new host for the show. Based on personal statements from several applicants, you have narrowed the candidates to two: Linda and Jason.

The executive producer has hired a private investigator (PI) to dig up whatever he or she can about the candidates online. The PI has created a profile of both of the final candidates with the most important online documents he could find. He has passed along these profiles to you.

Based on these profiles, the executive producer wants you to choose which candidate should host the show. You should be very careful how you choose. Your candidate will be seen by millions of teens, so you should make sure that she or he, in particular: 1) works well with others, and 2) is honest.

Step 1:

Working in groups, look carefully through the profiles of both candidates.

Step 2:

Highlight the information you think is most important, given that you are looking for someone who works well with others and is honest.

Step 3:

Fill out the Feedback Form on the last page of this handout and reach an agreement as a group about who should be the host.

Step 4:

Be prepared to present your selection to the rest of the class, along with specific supporting evidence.

Hey there, My name's Linda, I'm 21, and I'm a big fan of "Trillion Dollar Footprint." I watch the show every week (I can't believe you kicked off Kevin, btw), and my friends have been telling me for years that I should try to host, because, you see, I'm the best! In addition to being the sweetest girl you'll ever meet, I'm a talented cook and passionate about cooking (you should check out my food blog). I think it's important for the TDF host to have a talent so they can keep the audience entertained. In short, I'm funny, I'm cute and down to earth (see picture), and I'm going to blow your socks off as the new TDF host. Can't wait to hear from ya!

All the Best,

Linda Berliner

Hi there TV people,

My name's Jason, I'm 23, born and raised in Boston, MA (Best! City! Ever!), and I was made to be host of Trillion Dollar Footprint. As host, I'd love to show off my voice and inspire kids with a talent of my own. When I'm not out on the town with my friends or with my wife, I'm singing with my band or at home hanging out with my cat, Furmonster. Beyond that, I spend a lot of time online watching MeTube videos and stalking people on MyBook (just kidding). So, in conclusion, pick me! I am clearly the best choice.

Sincerely,

Jason Kramer

Four Hamford College Wrestlers Dismissed from Team Over Steroid Use

Monday, January 10, 2015 | <http://www.bostondailypress.com> | Local News

BOSTON – Four members of the Hamford Bulldogs wrestling team have been suspended for the rest of the season and asked not to return the following year after an anonymous source disclosed information about steroid use, says Head Coach Kevin Casmin.

The four students involved, freshmen Jeremy Dunlevy and Isaac Smith, and sophomores Jason Kramer and Marc Camphor, have written an open letter to the coach, in which they apologize to the team for their “inexcusable actions, which have affected our teammates and our college.” However, they go on to speak a “dire need for reform” about the vague rules regarding performance-enhancing drugs and dietary supplements.

Directions

What kinds of information would you want to find about yourself online in 10 years? Fill in the footprint below with the types of search results (articles, posts, videos, images, etc.) that you would want to see.

Examples: “a YouTube video of me performing with my band,” “an online newspaper article about my work to help the homeless,” “a photo of me at the White House meeting the president.” Be creative!

Use Common Sense!

You can have a great time online learning from and sharing with others, but:

- Think before you post, because many things you do online will add to your digital footprint
- Remember to review your privacy settings
- Perform a search on yourself every so often to see what your digital footprint looks like
